RUG LOVE

Keep your rugs looking shiny, brand-new with the following care instructions.

Vacuuming

A chore that should be exclusive to Cinderella! YUK! However, if you vacuum your rug every other week it will prevent dirt and grit filtering into the pile and keep your rug looking fabulous.

Nasty Stuff

Ooops! We've all spilt wine (or worse) on our newly laid flooring before. The key is to act quickly, grab a clean cloth and dab the liquid. Do not rub. Dab with carpet cleaner until the stain is removed. For really nasty stains, keep repeating this process until clean. You could try a specialist cleaner but if all else fails buy a new rug. ©

Grippers

Get yourself a Rug Hug and make sure your rug doesn't slip and slide with anti-slip underlay. Available from our good selfs.

Stop! Thieves

If you're thinking about stealing our designs and selling them from the back of a lorry in cheaper materials, don't! We've been really, really careful

We've spent hours and hours, even days, ensuring the brochure's colours accurately match the colours of our rugs. However, the printing process sometimes means there's a slight variation in colour. Sorry about that. We've also taken loads of care to describe the rugs accurately; however specifications may change.

All rugs are subject to availability and may be withdrawn or discontinued.
Remember 90% of our range is handmade and unique therefore designs may vary slightly.

Masses of thanks!

Once again, the agency that makes all the Plantation stuff possible, Brown Dog (www.brown-dog.co.uk), thank you. Brown Dog, you deserve a medal...several in fact. Finola Inger, a very talented stylist who understands the importance of commerciality and keeps it real, thank you. Finally, a huge thanks to the Jan Baldwin photo team – your attention to detail never ceases to amaze us.
